

NEIGHBORS IN PROTEST WHEN CANINES FIGHT

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The love of T. E. Price, wealthy grain broker, for "cows and chickens and the simple life" cost him $100 and costs when arraigned before Police Judge Nix.

Price, who admitted having in the yard of his home practically every variety of barnyard habitant with the exception of pigs and cows, contended that his fowl were "well bred" and didn't disturb the neighbors as guests of the fashionable Buckingham Hotel, next door to his home, contended, when appearing as witnesses against him. Some of the

Buckingham guests declared that Price's "well bred" ducks were early risers and seemed to think themselves an alarm clock for the neighborhood, as they "awoke tired sleepers" as early as 4 o'clock in the morning, and that the neighborhood was further disturbed by "cocking of peacocks and turning in the hen yards during all hours of the night."

Mrs. Rose Mangson, a fashionably attired guest of the Buckingham, declared the dogs owned by Price often fought, requiring the efforts of the entire Price family to separate them, and that "the Prices made more noise sometimes separating the fighting dogs than did the dogs themselves."

Price paid the fine, but announced he would appeal the case to a higher court.

Strike Big Gas Pocket

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
MONROE CITY, Mo.—A big gas pocket was struck by drillers for the Midvale oil company near here the other day. The pressure of the gas drove the drill from the hole and scattered drilling equipment in all directions.

Death Ends Divorce Case

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
KANSAS CITY, Mo.—A higher judge than sits in earthly courts heard the petition for divorce of Alfred Barnhart from Mrs. Mamie Barnhart here the other day. Barnhart sought to be freed, he told the court, because his wife told him she did not care to live with a man who wore working clothes. Death called Mrs. Barnhart the other day before her husband's petition was to have been acted upon.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR WHY IT INCREASES

Hair growth is stimulated and its frequent removal is necessary when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only logical and practical way to remove hair is to attack it under the skin. DeMikra, the original sanifer, liquid, does this by absorption. Only genuine DeMikra has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 60c, $1 and $2 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price. FREE book mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. DeMikra, 129th St. and Park Ave., New York

MAZOLA can be used often and at less cost than any other food in your kitchen—for cooking, for shortening, for salads.

FRANK B. McILROY
OF HAMMOND
Republican Candidate for SENATOR

In making my announcement as a candidate for Senator I deem it my duty to briefly but frankly state the principles upon which I stand, and which will govern my course, if I am elected by your generous suffrages a seat in the Senate of Indiana. These principles compressed into the narrowest compass are as follows:

I declare for state rights and individual liberty. I believe in the support of state sovereignty and local self-government. I am opposed to the National and State Prohibition act, because the people were denied any direct voice in its ratification or rejection, which is an infringement on personal rights.

I am opposed to the present obnoxious Tax Law, and if I am honored with a seat in the senate I will do all in my power to enact a new tax law that will be just and equitable to all taxpayers, whether large or small. I am opposed to the taxation of the poor whose personal property is valued at less than $500.00. I believe in taxation justly proportioned to such an extent only as is necessary for maintenance of government economically administered.

I favor a just and liberal appropriation to the American Soldiers of the world war, maimed or injured while fighting somewhere in France or upon the high seas to make the world safe for Democracy. I believe that each state should take care of their own. We owe the American Soldier a debt of gratitude that we can never repay.

Labor: The difference from times immemorial between capital and labor lies in the development and acceptance of the sharing of profits. Capital is dependent upon labor and labor upon capital. There must be co-operation between the employer and the employee—harmony must exist for the happiness and prosperity of both.

I believe in and stand for the rule of the people, and I invite all men, who so believe, to stand with me to the end.
